want to filibuster or eight years or nine hours, we'll do it. But this is about the right to bear arms, it's our Second Amendment that I think the NRA and their supporters want this bill for. It's not about any criminals going to have guns. It's not about 25,000 people going to rush right away to carry a concealed handgun. I think we put out the basic element of this bill, and that's the Second Amendment to our Constitution. Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Would like to recognize a guest of the Legislature and Senator Crosby. Under the south balcony we have Alisa Miller. Alisa was a Page in the Legislature in 1990. Alisa, it's good to see you. Senator Hartnett.

SENATOR HARTNETT: I'd like to give my time to Senator Chambers, if he so desires.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Chambers, if you'd care to use the time, Senator Hartnett is yielding to you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes. And Senator Tyson and I, although we differ on some issues, we agree on others, but this is one where we disagree. Senator Tyson, I'd like to ask you a question.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Tyson, will you respond?

SENATOR TYSON: Yes, I will.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Tyson, you cosigned this bill, didn't you?

SENATOR TYSON: Yes, I did.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And when you were speaking you were reading from Section 28-1202?

SENATOR TYSON: Yes, I was.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And that is a part of this bill, do you agree?

SENATOR TYSON: Yes, I do.
